Two new members elected to CHCC Board of Trustees

Bernie Tolsma, Jr. of Hawthorne and Eugene Chrinian of Mahwah were recently elected members of the Christian Health Care Center's Board of Trustees. In addition, Mark Reitma of North Haledon is returning to the board after being retired as a trustee for one year.

Chrinian is an entrepreneur owning seven Ashley Furniture Home stores and a distribution center serving the metro NJ/NY area. He is a member of the C-12 business group and is active in several charities. He and his wife and their family reside in Mahwah and attend Cornerstone Christian Church in Wyckoff.

Tolsma is the president of Reiner Group Inc. Previously, he served on the board of Eastern Christian School Association and Eastern Christian Children's Retreat. He and his wife attend Faith Community Christian Reformed Church in Wyckoff. Tolsma's wife, Rena serves on the CHCC Foundation Board of Trustees.

Reitsma is a certified financial planner and partner of Regency Wealth Management. His family attends Covenant Christian Reformed Church in North Haledon.

Henry Driesse of Pompton Plains and Daniel

Grimm of Wayne were re-elected to the board. Driesse, a member of the board since 2007, is retired from position of president, Fluid Technologies Group of ITT Corp. He and his wife reside in Pompton Plains, where they attend the Free Reformed Church. He also serves on the board of the Chilton Hospital Foundation.

Grimm has been a member of the CHCC Board of Trustees since 2007. He oversees communications activities for Becton Dickinson in Franklin Lakes. He resides with his family in Wayne. They attend Faith Community Reformed Church in Wyckoff.

"I so value the community leaders who serve on our volunteer board of trustees," said Douglas A. Struyk, president and CEO. "The members have a broad range of expertise and knowledge and they are responsible for the ongoing operations and growth of the center and for ensuring that it continues to adhere to its mission and vision."
