Christian Health Care Center Honors Volunteers During National Volunteer Week

Christian Health Care Center (CHCC) in Wyckoff recently honored its volunteers at its annual Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon during National Volunteer Week. One hundred people attended the luncheon held at Macaluso's in Hawthorne. Following lunch, awards were given to volunteers who had logged 250, 500, 1,500, 2,000, 6,000, and 10,000 hours of service.

“On behalf of CHCC, I would like to thank all those who volunteer for us in various places around campus,” said Dot Faasse, CHCC’s Coordinator of Volunteers. “This past year our adult volunteers gave more than 12,000 hours of service, and our Junior Volunteers gave more than 1,900 hours of service. We appreciate all the time and talents these wonderful people give to CHCC! They are all very special and truly are representatives of the hands of Christ.”

CHCC has 177 adult volunteers and 94 Junior Volunteers. CHCC volunteers provide help in a number of areas, including gift shop assistants for de Snoep Winkel Gift Shop and Tea Room, “neighborhood visitors” to visit residents one-on-one at Heritage Manor Nursing Home, transporting residents to worship service and activities, and assisting dietary staff in serving meals. In addition, each year CHCC has a Summer Junior Volunteer Program where teenagers between the
