Hany Sourial, MD, at Christian Health Care Center Elected as Fellow to the American College of Physicians

Hany Sourial, MD, Heritage Manor Nursing Home/Southgate Medical Director at Christian Health Care Center (CHCC) in Wyckoff, was recently elected as Fellow to the American College of Physicians (ACP), an internationally respected and diverse community of internal-medicine specialists and subspecialists united by a commitment to excellence. Internists apply scientific knowledge and clinical expertise to the diagnosis, treatment, and compassionate care of adults across the spectrum from health to complex illness.

“Dr. Sourial exemplifies the standards of Christian Health Care Center,” said Howard Gilman, MD, CHCC Medical Executive/Southgate Psychiatrist. “He is thoughtful, dedicated, and always striving to do the best he can for all of his patients. Being honored as a Fellow of the American College of Physicians is yet another example of his clinical excellence and expertise.”

With 148,000 members in countries across the globe, ACP is the largest medical-specialty society in the world. Founded in 1915, ACP and its physician members lead the profession in education, standard-setting, and the sharing of knowledge to advance the science and practice of internal medicine. Its mission is to enhance the quality and effectiveness of health care by fostering excellence and professionalism in the practice of medicine.

“Dr. Sourial provides outstanding leadership and care for the needs of our residents and patients,” said Douglas A. Struyk, CPA, LNHA, CHCC President and CEO. “We are very proud and thankful that he has earned this significant and well-deserved recognition that sets apart his high level of clinical expertise and knowledge. CHCC is blessed to have many dedicated physicians on staff who provide excellent clinical care and who are deeply committed to those we serve.”
